ABOUT WA WOMEN'S Hall of Fame

The WA Women's Hall of Fame was first established in 2011 in recognition of the Centenary of International Women's Day, held annually on 8th March. The purpose of the WA Women's Hall of Fame is to recognise and celebrate the achievements of Western Australian women past, present and future.

To date, 198 extraordinary Western Australian women from all regions in this State, and from diverse educational, organisational and cultural backgrounds who have left their mark in our communities have been inducted into the WA Women's Hall of Fame. Their achievements through business, growing industries, leading movements, mentoring, building communities, fund-raising, working in science and research, the arts, child-care, volunteering, and providing positive role-models and encouragement to the young women of our future have been recognised.

The WA Women's Hall of Fame is now endorsed by women's organisations, business, industry and government. The Hon. Simone McGurk MLA Minister for Women's Interests said "I am committed to gender equality and initiatives that recognise and celebrate the achievements of women across our state. The WA Women's Hall of Fame is an important way to acknowledge the efforts of women in WA, across a diverse range of endeavours, and I am pleased to offer my support."

A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM FIONA REID, Chairperson, WA Women's Hall of Fame

It has been nine years since the inaugural WA Women's Hall of Fame inductees were announced in 2011, and as we move towards our tenth anniversary, we are proud that nearly 200 women have been publicly acknowledged.

The Hall of Fame is an incredible record of the diversity in life for women around our State and what they each have in common, a commitment to make a difference and to enrich the lives of fellow Western Australian's.

International Women's Day celebrates the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women, reflecting on how far we have come, and how far we still must go to realise gender equality.

Our ability to continue and grow the WA Women's Hall of Fame is made possible by our wonderful sponsors and supporters and I hope you will join us so we may continue to honour the important role women play in Western Australia and celebrate their significant contribution to our community, history and culture.
